

TITLE: SATE Review Team Members for the Leeward Community College Career and Technical Education Unit and Program Review

The Hawaii Teacher Standards Board approves the following appointments to the Leeward Community College Career and Technical Education program SATE Teams:

Unit Review, October 19 and 26:

- Dr. Ken Johnson, Cooperative Education Coordinator, Professor, University of Hawaii Honolulu Community College
- Bernadette Howard, Director, Vocational and Community Education, Windward Community College
- Sherilyn Lau, CTE State Resource Teacher, Hawai'i Department of Education
- Alison Inouye, CTE State Resource Teacher, Hawai'i Department of Education
- Morgan Nakamura, CTE State Resource Teacher, Hawai'i Department of Education
- Dr. Nathan M. Murata, CAPE, Interim Assoc. Dean & Prof, Physical Education Program, University of Hawai'i -Manoa
- Carol Seielstad, CTE National Board Certified Teacher, Hawai'i Department of Education, retired

CTE Program Review, October 20 and 26:

- Dr. Angela Meixell, Interim State Director for Career and Technical Education
- Christine Ho, National Board Certified teacher, Hawai'i Department of Education
- Dr. Barbara White, Associate State Director of Career and Technical Education, University of Hawai'i
- Nina Enomoto, External Affairs Coordinator, Office of the State Director of Career and Technical Education
- Dr. Barry Mitchell, Associate Professor at BYU-Hawai'i, Secondary Education School of Education

Reviewer biographies attached.

Submitted by: Terry Lynn Holck

Referred to: Teacher Education Committee

Leeward Community College Career and Technical Education Review Teams

Dr. Ken Johnson is the Cooperative Education Coordinator Professor at Honolulu Community College. He earned his Doctorate of Public Health Degree (DPH) and Master of Education in Counseling and Guidance (MEd) from the University of Hawaii at Manoa, and a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from the University of Colorado. He coordinates the Cooperative Education Program, (courses in 21 academic and vocational-technical areas) and teaches cooperative education courses. Ken has also been the UHCC Career Pathway Lead for the Human Service, Education, Legal Services, Public Services Pathway, and the Industrial and Engineering Technology Pathway. This role involved establishing Advisory committees for each Pathway, conducting meetings, attending system wide meetings and joint meetings with the DOE, facilitating Articulation Agreements, and assisting with Conferences (2002, 2004). He has been a member of the Accreditation Evaluation Team for the University of Hawaii Career Technical Education Program.

Bernadette Howard is presently the Director of the Office of Career and Community Education at Windward Community College. She has had 33 years of community college experience, 20 of the years with the UH Community Colleges (UHCC). Bernadette also has 22 years as faculty; 11 years in administration, 5 years as Dean of Career and Technical Education (CTE); and 10 years' service on the UHCC system Perkins Committee (3 years as chair). Bernadette achieved rank of Assoc. Professor at Guam Community College (GCC) and again at Leeward Community College (LCC). She earned her Master's in Adult Education with emphasis in Higher Ed Administration, and her Bachelor's in Social Work.

Sherilyn Lau is a CTE State Resource Teacher for the Hawai'i Department of Education. She has earned a BA in Business Administration (Management), a Professional Diploma in Secondary Business Education, a Masters in Secondary Office Education, and a Master's in Business Administration (Marketing). Sherilyn has also served as a Federal CTE Perkins Evaluator, a Federal CTE Perkins Educational Specialist, and is temporarily assigned to Section Administrator for Arts, Science and Technology.

Dr. Nathan Murata is Interim Assoc. Dean & Prof, Physical Education Program, University of Hawai'i – Manoa

Alison Inouye is a Career Technical Education Resource Teacher, Natural Resources Pathway, with the Hawai'i Department of Education. She has also been a Middle School Coordinator and JV Football Coach (Waialua High and Intermediate); a State Resource Teacher for Environmental Education; an Accreditation Coordinator and Science Department Head (Stevenson Middle), and an Acting State Education Specialist in the area of Science. Alison received her BA in Economics from UH Manoa, and a Post

TITLE: SATE Review Team Members for the Leeward Community College Career and Technical Education Unit and Program Review – Page 3

Baccalaureate Certificate in Secondary Social Studies from UH Manoa College of Education.

Morgan Nakamura is a Career & Technical Education Resource Teacher for the Department of Education. She holds a BS in Apparel Merchandising, a Post Baccalaureate Certification in Secondary Education in Business Education, and a MEd in Curriculum Studies. Morgan started her teaching career as a secondary math teacher in the DOE. She then taught business at the secondary level.

Carol Seielstad is a National Board Certified Teacher. She was a special education teacher at Hanalei School. Carol also serve on the Hawai'i Teacher Standards Board. She has earned her AB with Honor at the University of California at Berkeley, her 5th year teaching credential at the College of Notre Dame, her Master's Equivalent (Reading) from McGill University and her Reading specialist requirements from the University of Maryland.

Dr. Angela Meixell is the Interim State Director for Career and Technical Education. Angela was chancellor of Windward Community College from 2002, after serving two years as Interim Provost, and first joined the University of Hawai'i System in 1979. She served as State Director of the Employment Training Center, which provides programs in basic skills and vocational training to the state's at-risk population, from 1997 to 2000. Prior to that, she was an Assistant Dean at Kapiolani Community College, with responsibility for managing external academic grants and vocational programs, and Director of Administrative Services, preparing a $20 million budget and overseeing fiscal and personnel services for the Kapiolani campus. Meixell earned both her master's and doctoral degrees in Educational Administration from the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa. She has taught in both public and private schools as well as at the Mānoa campus.

Christine Ho is a National Board Certified (CTE) teacher in the Hawai'i Department of Education. She has been active in the CTE Department of Farrington High School since 2006, as the Digital Media Instructor. She has been teaching art for approximately 18 years and is an arts advocate. In 2009, she was selected as the Teacher of the Year, Honolulu District. In 2011, she received the Outstanding Educator award from Oceanic Cablevision. Christine holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Communications Design from Parsons School of Design, received an MA from Columbia Teachers College, and an MPA from Baruch College in Public Administration.

Dr. Barbara White is the Associate State Director of Career and Technical Education at the University of Hawai'i. She directs the statewide development and implementation of Career Pathway standards, curriculum, assessment, and related material. Additionally, she plans, writes, edits, or directs the preparation of documents including concept materials and federally required reports. She earned her Doctorate from the University of Hawai'i. Areas of expertise include, research, policy development and implementation, curriculum development and assessment, community and workplace development, and grant writer.

TITLE: SATE Review Team Members for the Leeward Community College Career and Technical Education Unit and Program Review – Page 4

Nina Enomoto is the External Affairs Coordinator at the Office of the State Director of Career and Technical Education. Current projects include: 1) planning an innovations and technology in education state conference for the DOE and community college administrators, faculty and staff; 2) developing and managing a professional development project focusing on using student data to inform CTE instruction; 3) coordinating and facilitating industry skill panel discussions with the labor department; and 4) participating on the UH Achieving the Dream, a national initiative focused on student success at the community college. Nina has worked with career and technical education for 20 years, first with the Native Hawaiian CTE programs then with OSDCTE. OSDCTE is the Hawaii state administrating office for the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education federal funds. Aside of being part of the team that helps to administer and manage our particular grant funds, she is involved in projects dealing with teacher professional development, student achievement, and workforce.

Dr Barry Mitchell is an Associate Professor at BYU-H. His professional expertise is in assessment and evaluation and curriculum development. His research areas are in building partnerships between schools and villages in Fiji.

Rachel Omick is the Director of Special Programs and Field Services at Chaminade University. Rachel is additionally in charge of the EA Dual Licensure program in partnership with the DOE and the Teach for America program. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Syracuse University and a Masters in Elementary Education and Masters in Business Administration from Chaminade University.